New Revenue Law.

The Press of Wednesday last contains the official copy of all the recent amendments to the Revenue Law. An extra edition was printed, and a few copies are still unsold. Price by mail or at the counter five cents.

CAUGHT.—A man named Beller enlisted in this city some time ago as a substitute, and was sent to Taylor Barracks, receiving five or six hundred dollars from the person whom he was to represent in the army and secure against the chances of being drafted. Beller deposited five hundred dollars of his substitute money with the sutler at the barracks for safe keeping, and a few days afterwards, while the sutler was absent, he, with a lot of substitutes, was suddenly sent off to Nashville to be assigned to a command, and he was compelled to leave without drawing his money. The sutler deposited the money in one of the banks, to await the order of the owner. Day before yesterday the substitute called upon him at his home in the city, and claimed the money, stating that he was here with a lot of soldiers going to Sherman's army. The sutler at once suspected that he had deserted, and determined to satisfy himself before giving him the money; and upon inquiry what he suspected turned out to be true. Beller was arrested and is held as a deserter.

DEATH FROM POISON.—An inquest was held Wednesday evening, on Preston street, between Market and Jefferson, upon the body of a woman named Katharina Buehler. The verdict of the Coroner's jury was, death from premature birth. It seems that the deceased had taken a drug, prepared for her, to produce abortion, and, from symptoms upon the body, it was evident that there must have been some poisonous ingredient in the compound taken to produce that result. She died Wednesday morning. On the evening of the same day a woman named Mary Wolford, living on the corner of Preston and Market streets, was arrested, charged with having furnished Mrs. Buehler with the poisonous drug, and was placed in jail. She was before the Police Court yesterday morning, but her case was continued till this morning. The accused enjoys something of a reputation among her neighbors as a fortune-teller, claiming to be able to foretell future events in the lives of persons. The deceased was a married woman, and about thirty years of age.

THE DRAFT IN THE COUNTY.—The number of men liable to draft in Jefferson county is near three thousand, to fill the quota of four hundred and twenty. Out of this three thousand only about two hundred and fifty have paid their $20 into the bounty fund, to secure themselves the $300 provided by the county court. This is a poor show, not at all creditable to the county. And unless the people show more disposition to fill their quota, the draft will be suddenly and unexpectedly pushed through. Volunteers in plenty are offered, but no money to pay the local bounty.

HORTICULTURIST FOR MARCH.—Horticulture in all its varied branches, practical and ornamental, opens this new year of 1865 with an impetus hitherto unknown, and it advances with a firm and decisive step that surpasses even its most earnest enthusiasts. The Horticulturist is what it claims to be—a Journal of Rural Art and Rural Taste. That it is appreciated, is evidenced by a subscription list that we learn has increased 118 per cent in the last six months. First class talent in the editorial department brings with it own reward. The price per annum is $2 50. Subscriptions received by Civil & Calvert.

S. B. Howe's great Circus commences its series of entertainments in our city next Friday night. Those curious to know what the most attractive features are, have probably learned from the advertisement that James Robinson, the unrivaled bare-back rider, the Bedouin Arab troupe, nine in number, Crockett and his lions, the trained Kangaroos the Conklin brothers, and the usual array of riders, tumblers, and clowns, now with this exhibition, make a most attractive list.

ARRESTED FOR STEALING GOVERNMENT PROPERTY.—Thirteen men, employed as Government teamsters in this city, were arrested Tuesday evening for stealing property belonging to Government, and sent to Barracks prison to await an examination of their case.

PROSECUTED.—We are glad to learn that our friend Nat. Wheeler, of the 11th New Hampshire, who has been for some time Chief Clerk at the Provost Marshal's office, has been appointed First Lieutenant in the 12th U. S. C. Infantry.

GOLD IN EXCHANGE FOR CURRENCY and premium charged at Civil & Calvert's new Bindery. Gold letters stamped on Books, Albums &c., in the best style and at low rates.

OPINIONS.—Two Opinions of the Attorney General upon matters connected with the Draft and Enrollment are officially announced by Col. Sidell this morning.

SUICIDE AT CAMP CARRINGTON.—A soldier named Harvey Maxwell committed suicide by cutting his throat at Camp Carrington last week. He lived in Hancock county, where he owned considerable property, and had a wife and family. For some time before the commission of the fatal act, he was noticed to be restless and uneasy. The most singular feature of the matter is the appearance of his friends, with a substitute to take his place, a few hours after his death. They came a little too late. The soul of the conscript had evaded military duty, and the services of the substitute were not required.

Martin V. Archer, of Davies county, was yesterday received at the Provost Marshal's office, having been arrested as a guerrilla.

AMNESTY OATH.—Richard M. White, of the 2d Missouri cavalry, and Tyler Kirby, co. A, 13th Kentucky cavalry, both of Jefferson county, Kentucky, took the amnesty oath at the Provost Marshal's office yesterday, giving themselves up, and were allowed to go their way.

John W. West, of this city, took the oath of allegiance at the Provost Marshal's office yesterday and was released, having been arrested for disloyalty.

INQUIRY NO. 325.—Held on the 21st of March, at the residence of the deceased on Preston street, between Market and Jefferson, upon the body of Catharine Buehler, aged thirty years. Verdict—Came to the death at about 8 o'clock, A. M., March 21st, from the effects of premature birth.

J. C. GILL, Coroner.

Grant's Opinion About Richmond.

NEW YORK. March 22.—The Herald's Key West correspondent says the object of Gen. Newton's recent expedition up to St. Marks, Florida, was to clear out the rebels, inflict as much damage as possible, and, if practicable, capture St. Marks.

Though not accomplishing all, he was successfully, after considerable skirrishing had made a stubborn fight at Natural Bridge, where the rebels were discovered in strong force and also were very well posted. Though in superior numbers, we were from his opinion, but Gen. Newton owing to disparity of numbers, deemed it best to return to Key West, which he did without being troubled by the rebels.

It was recently stated in the South Carolina Legislature that the entire effective force of the Confederacy was only 120,000 men, and official documents from Richmond corroborate this statement.

The Herald prints official documents going to show that there is a complete rupture between Maximilian and the Catholic Church. Among them is a letter from the Foreign Minister to the Bishop of Mexico, warning and giving advice. All of which, however, are disregarded by the latter, Arch-Bishops and Bishops of Mexico. He also protests against the acts of the new Emperor, and appeals for suspension of the measures against the church. The present is the first indication and confirmation of the reform laws of Juarez are denounced.

The Tribune's James river correspondent says refugees from Richmond report great consternation in that city. They say that Lee has been for some time in course of evacuation, sending government materials, machinery, etc., to Lynchburg and Danville.

Sheridan, they also say, has put a stop to this in a great measure, by destroying the Richmond and Lynchburg railroads. The main road is almost worn out, with no material or men to spare to repair it.

These men think Davis, Lee, and other leaders have lost all hope, and already have their eyes on Mexico as an asylum.

The Tribune's Washington correspondent says that Lee's General Grant's opinion that Richmond will be evacuated within the next ten days.

The Sanitary Commission are sending large quantities of stimulants to the Army of the Potomac. A number of surgeons are sent to the Army.

The Herald's Washington special says it is known by the Administration that Stephens, Hunter, and Lee are all hopeless of the rebellion, and have so informed Davis.

Lee looks upon arming slaves as a failure, for the simple reason that Congress delayed the measure too long, besides the failure to make the negroes free renders the plan useless.

President Lincoln does not believe there will be any more serious fighting, but that the rebels will soon surrender.

The Times' correspondent says rebel deserters report that Sherman arrived in front of Raleigh on the 13th, and that a battle was going on at last accounts. This could not have been, as Sherman did not leave Fayetteville till the 14th.

There was a sale by auction of 550 bales of Cape wool, slightly damaged, at 29 1/2¢. The prices obtained were considered high.

ALBANY, March 22.—The bill to remove restrictions as to fare on the New York Central Railroad was killed in the Senate to-day.

BUFFALO, March 22.—There is a heavy snow-storm here, but the snow melts as fast as falls.

PITTSBURG, March 22, M.—River 14 feet by the pier mark and swelling slowly. The weather is cloudy, windy, and damp.

CINCINNATI, March 22, M.—The river has risen 18 inches since yesterday and is still rising half an inch an hour. Weather clear. Thermometer 56.

RIVER MATTERS.

ARRIVALS.

WEDNESDAY, March 22.
Gen. Lytle, Cincinnati. H. F. Curtis, Agent No. 1, Pittsburg Banking Co., Memphis.

DEPARTURES.
Huntsman, Cincinnati. Luna Tern. Grey Eagle, Henderson. Mrs. Cincinnati. W. F. Curtis.

THE river was swelling very slowly last evening, less than half an inch per hour, but during the previous twenty-four hours it had risen 18 inches at the head of the canal and about 2 feet at Portland. The weather yesterday was clear and bracing, with a high wind prevailing all day. At times it blew a gale, making the surface of the river as rough as sea.

On the 1st last evening there was an abundance of water for all navigable purposes, and not much demand for falls pilots.

At Pittsburg the river had commenced rising again yesterday, with 14 feet water in the river.

At Cincinnati the river had risen 18 inches yesterday up to noon, and it was then rising very slowly, and we expect it to commence falling there-to-day.

From noon yesterday to dusk the river had not risen over two inches here, and it was then falling. The customers of the sidewalk saling Water street, and we think it will commence falling to-day.

Owing to the gale that prevailed yesterday, a number of boats were wind-bound. Some could not leave port, and others that were due in the morning had not arrived at dusk last evening, including the Nick Longworth, from Cincinnati.

The Majestic made her efforts to leave port yesterday, but did not get away from the wharf. The sea ran too high for either comfort or safety, and together with the Lure and Mary she concluded to await a calm.

The river was very rough all day, and if and coal-boats were running them must have had a hard time to be kept afloat, and we expect to hear of many losses.

We learn by special dispatches to Cropper, Patton & Co., the agents in this city, that the splendid steamer W. R. Carter, Capt. Clegg, will be in port this morning, bound for Ocean City. She has most of her cargo engorged, and starts this evening at 4 o'clock, from the city wharf.

The new steamer Fashion, at Cincinnati, has turned over her New Orleans freight to the W. R. Carter, and abandoned her trip for the river.

The new steamer Indiana, Capt. Neal, will not be here before to-morrow on her way to New Orleans. Passengers or shippers will find the Indiana a sure, safe, and very pleasant boat.

The Argonaut No. 2 came in from Pittsburg yesterday with a heavy freight, including a lot of railroad iron for the Nashville road.

The Bermuda, Columbia and R. L. Woodward are advertised for the Cumberland river this evening.

The Eliza J. S. Richey is at the city wharf receiving her outfit and a freight for Nashville and Cumberland river.

The great steamer Ruth yesterday was receiving her immense chimneys, or smoke stacks, the largest on the river. If the wind "lays-to" day her chimneys will be elevated in position, and she will then be soon ready to raise steam.

The Wren was due from the Kentucky river yesterday evening, but we suppose she has been delayed by the wind-storm. The Gen. Buell is the fast line morning mailboat to day for Cincinnati and the East. She starts at noon.

The ever lasting steamer for Cincinnati is the Maj. Nick Longworth. She starts at 4 o'clock, unless the Nick Longworth, which has been detained, and was due yesterday takes her place.
